Renovated Underground Club Debuts Dec. 31st with New Year's Party

The Chicago Reader calls this "the best place to be when the ball drops." The Kiss Kiss Cabaret proudly presents their Annual New Year's Eve Hallaboo 2014 in the newly-expanded Uptown Underground at 4707 N. Broadway. Former incarnations of the underground space included a reggae club, a disco, and a history colorfully packed with Capone era hood, famous stars, and a legendary escape route for "boys on the line."

Five Chicago restaurant industry leaders were honored as inductees into the Ninth Annual Chefs Hall of Fame by the Chicago Culinary Museum: Chef Stephanie Izard for Chef of the Year, Chef Gale Gand for Buttery Chef of the Year, Chef Michael Korman for Legendary Chef, Phil Sefton as Industry Leader, and Larry Levy as Industry Legend. Mayor Rahm Emanuel has also proclaimed it will be "Chef Stephanie Izard Day in Chicago." The event was held at Castle, 23 North Dearborn.

Above: The partying gets crazy at the Annual New Year's Eve Hallaboo. The five venue expanded after a four-year run to Chicago's renovated Uptown corridor.
